BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS SEEKS VOLUNTEERS TO HONOR

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – The Macomb County Board of Commissioners is looking for nominations of county residents who made a difference in the community by giving their talents and time to volunteer.

Of the nominees submitted, 100 of the most outstanding volunteers will be selected and publicly honored at the 16th annual Macomb County Volunteer Recognition Awards Dinner on April 21.

“These individuals truly deserve our praise,” said Nancy White, chair of the Board of Commissioners. “Through their efforts, the volunteers improve the lives of others and the quality of our communities. Honoring them is one of the most fulfilling parts of my job.”

Although most nominations come from churches, schools, hospitals, charitable organizations, civic, veteran, and senior groups, anyone can make a nomination.
